DON'T BE LONG FACED

Because You Happen To Be a Christian.

RELIGION DOES NOT DEMAND IT

Evangelist Naylor Touched Upon an Interesting Subject—One Life of Sin Affects the Life of Another—How Good Men Get to Heaven.

Owing to the disagreeable weather last evening, the revival services at the Methodist Protestant church were not as fully attended as usual. Reverend Berrien, of the Methodist Protestant conference, was present, and spoke before the evangelist began his talk, the theme of which was, "Let me live the life of the righteous." In part Reverend Naylor said:

"Not one of us present tonight has been free from depravity. Our mental souls are naturally depraved. We are good for nothing except darkness. Our hearts point downward, our voices point downward, and were it not for the holy spirit we would all be lost. This is our position. We are not fit to die, and we can only be fit for death when we get Christ in our soul. It is only by the holy spirit that our lives can be changed from degradation to purity. Not a soul with one bit of sin upon it will ever enter heaven. Therefore nothing that is defiled can enter through the gates of heaven to be qualified, for living is to take Christ as our example.

"A number of us adopt methods to be saved by endearing the creeds of our churches. There is only one Power that can wash our sins away, and that is Jesus. This is the only source of salvation. We try to lead a legal life, and by this we become Jews. Christ's church is full of Jews—Jews who have never experienced the second birth. If you don't want to be a Jew, and do want to be a Christian, you, then, must apply to God on high for that supernatural power, which He only possesses. "To be made righteous you must be made so by God. Your life by this will be one of peace—perfect peace. When all grows dark that lightning flashes; when all the black clouds fly through the sky; when the thunder claps; when the waves roll high and beat against the gospel ship; when all seems against us. Then can we have in our breast the love of God, if we will. That sleep so perfect in Jesus. Oh how perfect.

"When you are a Christian you don't have to look down in the month. If you think the life of a Christian is dark and gloomy, my young friend, you are sadly mistaken. The religion of Christ brings in the heart brightness and sunshine. If there is one thing that fills the heart of a good man it is the love of God—his religion, his ways. Get God in your life, that beautiful Jesus, get him on board and your life will be one of bliss and happiness. If you don't, better give up this life. The love of God in your soul will bring not darkness, but light; not gloom, but life. Gloomy, sad, long faced, etc. Will religion make a man like that? Never, no never. Am I to be sad because I have God in my soul? Am I to be sad because I am good? Shall I be miserable when I get to heaven? Nothing of the kind. There are things which make us weep, but that is as Jesus was. I want to impress upon your mind that the Christian has a life to live that never brings sadness and misery. Oh no, it brings gladness and kindness, and when death claims you and you have lived a good life you need have no fear. Your death will be peaceful, your sleep will be peaceful. Oh how beautiful. While you are alive live a life of kindness and do kind deeds. Try this if you don't believe it.

"How one life of sin affects the life of another. It has a tendency to drag down another life. Friend, my prayer is, 'Be a Christian.' Then, death, where is thy sting? I don't care how I get to heaven, just so I get there. O, how I would like to go there with all flaws floating to the breeze.

"Ask David how he went to heaven, and methinks I hear him say, 'Through the valley and the shadow of death.' Paul? 'By fighting a good fight.' John Wesley, how did you get there? You, whom they said were crazy? 'Because God showed me the way.' Charles Wesley? 'By living as best I could, and following the laws of God.' "

Jesus, lover of my soul, Let me to Thy bosom fly, While the nearer waters roll, While the tempest still is high, Hide me, O, my Savior, hide Till the storm of life is past. Safe into the haven guide, Oh, receive my soul at last.

SENTENCE DAY.

Judge Smith Dealt Out Justice to Offenders.

Lisbon, March 9.—(Special.)—The case of the Lakon company against the Ceramic City Light company, tried before Squire Rose in Liverpool, Feb. 20, was appealed to common pleas. The action was brought to recover for merchandise sold the Ceramic City company in 1894, and in the lower court a judgment was rendered for $126.80.

The marriage of R. J. McIntosh, of Pittsburg, and Miss Lydia Rogers, of Wellsville, was solemnized yesterday afternoon in the probate court room by Squire Firestone. The ceremony was witnessed by a large crowd.

Marriage licenses were issued to George L. Kenty and Lilly Van Fossan, Wesley J. Coburn and Martha Anderson.

Mary Erwin began suit in court to recover from Daniel Strickler $265. The amount is due on a note.

Judge Boone has been notified by the authorities at Newburg that Mrs. E. J. Wilson, of Rogers, will be received into that institution.

Charley Zoellers, of East Liverpool, was brought before Judge Smith to receive sentence for larceny, to which he pleaded guilty Saturday night. He got $40 and costs, and to stand committed to the works until paid.

Stephen Whitacre, the East Rochester boy indicted for taking and using a horse, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to pay $30 and costs. The men will be taken to Canton this week.

Will Mills, of Lisbon, indicted for burglary, said he was guilty, and will be sent to the Mansfield reformatory.

Frank Gray, John Gourley, Alexander Hineman and Warren and Charles Willson, the Liverpool boys indicted for stealing pigeons, acknowledged their guilt, and were each fined $10 and costs, with the exception of Gray, who got $15. The judge said the boys were to be confined in jail until the amount was paid. Hineman, Gourley, and one Willson are still in jail.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Edward Gibson, of Salem, against Saloonist Charles Morrison, returned a verdict after four hours of deliberation in favor of Mrs. Gibson. She was given $1012.50 damages. The case was brought because Morrison sold her husband liquor after she had given the saloonist notice not to do so.

A GOOD THING

For Those Who Are Interested in the Advancement of Good Music.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—The means have at last been provided by which our city can have a chorus free to all. In keeping with the liberal spirit which has characterized his work here, Professor Harper agrees to give his services free and to supply the music free of charge if a sufficient number—40 to 50—to form a chorus will attend the rehearsals. This, certainly, is an exceptional offer, removing, as it does, all obstacles which heretofore have stood in the way.

Its success now lies entirely with those of us who know the enjoyment such an organization gives and who wish to see one established here. Other towns of half the size of Liverpool have and are proud of their choruses. We now have the opportunity to possess one; we have more and better voices, and like music better than any city of our size, so let us show our appreciation of the good offer which has been made and be present at the next rehearsal Thursday evening at Professor Harper's studio.

NOT SO BAD.

Reports of the Peach Crop Are Without Foundation.

A statement has been going the rounds for several days that the peach crop is ruined. It originated in the northern part of the state, and has been applied to almost every section. A well known farmer is responsible for the statement that so far as southern Columbiana county is concerned there is nothing in it. He knows that the peach buds have not gone to the bowwows, and has every reason to believe the crop will at least be an average one. While it may not be what it was last year he thinks it is not yet time for fruit growers to cut down their trees.

A SMALL VOTE

Is Expected at the Primaries Next Saturday.

The opinion is expressed that the result of the Republican primaries will soon be known after the polls close next Saturday evening. It is given as the opinion of some men who know politics and political matters that the vote in this city will not be large. One estimate places it at no more than 1,400. The same condition is said to exist all over the county, and the vote will be small. This is in a measure due to the small amount of money expended in the campaign.

GAS BILLS VERY BIG

Claims Committee Find Cause For Complaint.

SEVERAL ACCOUNTS HELD OVER

Lots of Money Will Be Ordered Paid by Council Tonight—One Bill Was For Interfering Bodies at the Old Cemetery—The Treasurer's Report.

Claims committee met last evening at city hall. The first objection raised was to a bill of $16.80 for gas, and Clerk Hanley was instructed to investigate. When Mr. Stewart came to another bill for gas he said: "There is something wrong with this gas bill. It is for 91,000 feet." Clerk Hanley explained it was all right, and Mr. Stewart remarked that he did not think they would burn that much during the summer.

A bill of $10 from C. Bright for "lifting seven bodies and parts of four others with what was found over the bank," caused Mr. Stewart to remark: "This is the first bill of that kind we ever got." Bills of P. P. Wherry for $43.20, and J. R. Shawke for $1.90 were referred to Engineer George, and Clerk Hanley was instructed to hold the bill of Robert Hall for $42.60 until the work is finished.

The following bills were then ordered paid: G. L. Frederick, $1.95; Waggle & Grosshans, $4.40; Commissioner Finley, salary and pay roll, $141; Thomas Lloyd, $2.25; salary for fire department, $410; A. Patterson, $16; J. R. Shawke, $1.55; C. Metach, $48.14; Eagle Hardware company, $6.79; H. L. Childs & Co., $3; Union Planing company, $7.85; salary of police force, $349.25; A. J. Johnson, feeding prisoners, $14.13; A. J. Johnson, work of prisoners, $15; work on East End culvert, $41.25; J. N. Hanley, $52; Isaac Shemp, $12.75; Fred Nelly, 75c; Wilson Stationery company, $2.45; Kinsey Plumbing company, $2.03; John A. George, $135.05; Ceramic City Light company, $532; E. E. Snowden, $1.30; Knowles, Taylor and Anderson, $11.31; Board of Health, $52.90.

The payment of a note for $4,187.30 for the Fourth street extension and the McDole lot over the general fund $922.24. Counting this amount, the sum available for city purposes is $26,707.30.

MUCH TO DO.

Council Will Likely Have a Lengthy Session.

The meeting of council this evening will probably be a lengthy session. There is no special business to transact, but the reports of city officers will be read. The curfew ordinance will be up for its third reading, and the finance committee will report on the vehicle question and it will be disposed of. There may be a report also in regard to the Eighth street sewer.

Scared a Pair of Drunks.

Saturday night between 11 and 12 o'clock two drunken men attempted to hold up a young man on Fourth street near the Episcopal church. The young man was not frightened in the least, but told the people to move on, and they did.

STRUCK A WOMAN.

A Disgraceful Scene on the Wellsville Road.

When the last street car rounded the corner at Tophet last night two well-known young men of this city were seen in company with a notorious woman. The young men hailed the motorman, and started for the car, but the woman caught one of them and held him. His friend went back and dealt her two hard blows, knocking her down, but she still clung to the young man, cursing him in every imaginable way. The motorman started the car, and one of the young men jumped aboard, leaving the other to get away from the woman as best he could.

BROKE HER ARM.

Miss Martha Porter Was Seriously Hurt in Florida.

A letter received yesterday from the party who are spending the winter in Florida states that on last Friday, in crossing a railroad trestle, Miss Martha Porter slipped and fell a distance of 25 feet, breaking an arm and severely spraining her ankle. Medical aid was secured at once, and Miss Porter is now recovering as rapidly as the circumstances will allow.

DIRTY WORK

The Men Who Are Guilty of It Are Not Manly.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—The opponents of Joseph F. Marshall, the choice of the masses for the state senate, since Hon. A. H. McCoy was forced off the ticket, have awakened to the fact that they have a foe man worthy of their steel, and that they cannot place their candidate with as much ease as they anticipated. In fact, they now realize that they are treading on dangerous ground, and that it will require desperate work to hold their own in this city of East Liverpool, where the workmen are admirers of fair play, and will vote as per good judgment and intelligence dictate, and not at the despotic command of any one.

And now the opposition are resorting to absolute meanness, unworthy of common manhood. They have approached men in this city in an underhanded, contemptible manner, asserting that Joseph F. Marshall is a drinking man, when they approach a lover of sobriety. Then when they strike a man who does not care about this special feature, they declare that Joseph F. Marshall is opposed to President McKinley and his administration.

See here, you lovers of fair play and common, square, honorable, everyday manhood, when these falsifiers approach you in this manner, simply say to them:

"See here, Munchausen, thou prince of liars, I know thee to be off thy base. Thou art a slanderer of the deepest dye. I know Joseph F. Marshall, and know him to be a true, sober, honorable man, who will not stoop to meanness of any kind or character. I know him to be a firm, unfaltering admirer and friend of President McKinley. I know, on his solemn word of honor, that he will stand by the administration and fulfill the wishes of his constituents, and I know that the fellows who are maligning him and lying about him are just a little meaner than Satan wants them to be. You'll excuse me, base slanderer, for plain speaking; but, let me tell you, your evil work, like chickens, will come home to your own roost. People who live in glass houses should not indulge in stone throwing. I'm a believer in fair play. A believer in the right to cast my ballot for the man I think best fitted for the position, and that man is Joseph F. Marshall, the choice of the people."

FAIR PLAY

ANOTHER TERM.

George C. Murphy Is Wanted in the School Board.

Many friends of George C. Murphy are anxious to have him continue as a member of the board of education, and it is more than a possibility that he will be a candidate. Mr. Murphy was appointed to fill out the term of Murray Nickle, and has done it so well that the demand for his return to the position next term is general. Mr. Murphy is being strongly urged to become a candidate, and there are reasons for believing that his name will be on the ticket.

LATER—Mr. Murphy this afternoon gave his consent, and will be a candidate.

TO BE BURIED TOMORROW.

The Remains of Mrs. Corcoran Brought Here Today.

The remains of Mrs. Thomas Corcoran, who died in Pittsburg yesterday, were brought to this city this afternoon. The body was taken to the Hilbert residence in Second street, and funeral services will be held at St. Aloysius church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Reverend Father Smythe officiating. The death of Mrs. Corcoran was a great shock to her family and friends in this city. Although she has been very ill, few believed she was in a dangerous condition.

ATTACKED BY A DOG.

Clyde Larkins Had an Experience in Avondale Street.

Clyde Larkins was in the upper part of the city this afternoon when he was attacked by a dog. The canine rushed at him again and again, and he was unable to keep it away. At length he called for help and the dog was killed, but he was compelled to borrow a pair of trousers from a kind friend before he dared to venture down town.

JOE STANWAY'S STORY

Ted Hancock Had Insulted His Mother

AND HE KNOCKED HIM DOWN

Mrs. Dan Densmore Had a Long Tale of Abuse and Ill Treatment—A Charge of Assault and Battery Against the Husband—She Wants the Furniture.

Mayor Gilbert had more business last night, and something more than the usual stir was created about city hall.

Early in the evening Ted Hancock said some words to Mrs. Stanway at the Commercial House to which she objected. Her son, Joe Stanway the football player, was in the room, and lost no time in knocking Hancock down, and administering a rebuke that Hancock will not forget within the next few weeks. The row was heard by parties in the house, and a telephone message summoned the police. Officers Terrence and Bryan took the men to city hall where Hancock was locked up, and Stanway put up $10 for his appearance this morning. Hancock was charged with disorderly conduct, and plainly showed the marks of the thrashing he got when he appeared to plead not guilty this morning.

The next ripple of excitement was occasioned by the appearance of Mrs. Dan Densmore. She told a story of misery and ill treatment which at once won her the sympathy of all in the room. Her husband, she said had struck her on the head last Saturday, and had abused her so at other times that she could endure it no longer. She had decided to live apart from him, and she wanted the advice of Mayor Gilbert as to the best means of securing her property. Some things had been given her by her mother, and she wanted them. The story was long drawn out, and finally ended in a charge of assault and battery being laid against Densmore.

Will Bradley, whom Carrie Barton caused to be arrested, Saturday night, for coming into her apartments in the Farmer block, drunk, and insulting her, will be given a hearing tomorrow. Carrie said this morning that Will cried, and wanted her to withdraw the suit, but she is going to send him as far as the law will allow. He is still in jail, having failed to secure a bondsman.

LATER—Miss Barton this afternoon charged Bradley with assault, with intent to rape.

IT COMES LATE.

The Date For Easter This Year Will Be April 18.

Easter will come late this year, Ash Wednesday having fallen on March 3, which makes Easter Sunday come on April 18, almost as late as it can possibly come. Easter may come as early as March 22 and as late as April 25. It depends, as everybody knows, upon the phase of the moon but just the rate of computation is not always the Sunday that follows the full moon immediately following the spring equinox, March 21. If the full moon is on Sunday, Easter is the following Sunday.

A CITIZEN'S TICKET.

The Prohibitionists Will Discuss It Tonight.

A movement is on foot this afternoon which may result in a citizen's ticket for the municipal election. The Prohibitionists are interested to a marked degree, and they will not nominate a ticket tonight if assured that all party lines will be broken down and a ticket made up of men of all parties named. It is not known what degree of success has attended the efforts of those behind the movement.

BROKE UP A STAG PARTY.

The Guests Made More Noise Than Chief Johnson Allows.

A stag party was held at Bradshaw hall last night, and a large number of young men were present. They started with the determination to enjoy the time, and were making more noise than the police allow when Chief Johnson and Officer Whan put an end to the wild hilarity. The affair was declared at an end, and the revelers were compelled to go home.

A BIG POTTERY

Will Replace the One Destroyed by Fire at Kokomo.

The new pottery which will be erected by Conrad Bros. at Kokomo, Ind., to replace the one destroyed by fire will be fireproof throughout. The main building will be 150x50 feet, four stories high and basement. The other building will be 120x45 feet and three stories high. Several firms are bidding on the erection of the plant, and it is expected the contract will be let in a few days.

The opinion is expressed that the result of the Republican primaries will soon be known after the polls close next Saturday evening. It is given as the opinion of some men who know politics and political matters that the vote in this city will not be large. One estimate places it at no more than 1,400. The same condition is said to exist all over the county, and the vote will be small. This is in a measure due to the small amount of money expended in the campaign.

GAS BILLS VERY BIG

Claims Committee Find Cause For Complaint.

SEVERAL ACCOUNTS HELD OVER

Lots of Money Will Be Ordered Paid by Council Tonight—One Bill Was For Interring Bodies at the Old Cemetery—The Treasurer's Report.

Claims committee met last evening at city hall. The first objection raised was to a bill of $16.80 for gas, and Clerk Hanley was instructed to investigate. When Mr. Stewart came to another bill for gas he said: "There is something wrong with this gas bill. It is for 91,000 feet." Clerk Hanley explained it was all right, and Mr. Stewart remarked that he did not think they would burn that much during the summer.

A bill of $10 from C. Bright for "lifting seven bodies and parts of four others with what was found over the bank," caused Mr. Stewart to remark: "This is the first bill of that kind we ever got." Bills of F. P. Wherry for $43.20, and J. R. Shawke for $1.90 were referred to Engineer George, and Clerk Hanley was instructed to hold the bill of Robert Hall for $42.60 until the work is finished.

The following bills were then ordered paid: G. L. Frederick, $1.95; Waggle & Grosshans, $4.40; Commissioner Finley, salary and pay roll, $141; Thomas Lloyd, $2.25; salary for fire department, $410; A. Patterson, $16; J. R. Shawke, $1.55; C. Metach, $4.14; Eagle Hardware company, $6.79; H. L. Childs & Co., $3; Union Planning company, $7.85; salary of police force, $249.25; A. J. Johnson, feeding prisoners, $14.13; A. J. Johnson, work of prisoners, $15; work on East End culvert, $41.25; J. N. Hanley, $52; Isaac Shemp, $12.75; Fred Nelly, 75c; Wilson Stationery company, $2.45; Kinsey Plumbing company, $2.03; John A. George, $135.05; Ceramic City Light company, $532; E. E. Snowden, $1.30; Knowles, Taylor and Anderson, $11.31; Board of Health, $52.90.

THE TREASURER'S REPORT.

What Money the City Has to Meet All Expenses.

The report of Treasurer Herbert, as it will be made in council tonight, shows the following amounts in the various funds:

Street, $1,634.17; wharf, $45.06; fire, $1,013.95; police, $872.51; light, $2,494; sinking, $11,875.57; interest, $4,566; sanitary, $932.78; sewer, $706.88; bridge, $3,558.42. Total, $27,629.44.

The payment of a note for $4,187.30 for the Fourth street extension and the McDole lot overdrew the general fund $922.24. Counting this amount, the sum available for city purposes is $26,707.20.

MUCH TO DO.

Council Will Likely Have a Lengthy Session.

The meeting of council this evening will probably be a lengthy session. There is no special business to transact, but the reports of city officers will be read. The curfew ordinance will be up for its third reading, and the finance committee will report on the vehicle question and it will be disposed of. There may be a report also in regard to the Fifth street sewer.

Scared a Pair of Drunks.

Saturday night between 11 and 12 o'clock two drunken men attempted to hold up a young man on Fourth street near the Episcopal church. The young man was not frightened in the least, but told the people to move on, and they did.

STRUCK A WOMAN.

A Disgraceful Scene on the Wellsville Road.

When the last street car rounded the corner at Tophet last night two well-known young men of this city were seen in company with a notorious woman. The young men hailed the motorman, and started for the car, but the woman caught one of them and held him. His friend went back and dealt her two hard blows, knocking her down, but she still clung to the young man, cursing him in every imaginable way. The motorman started the car, and one of the young men jumped aboard, leaving the other to get away from the woman as best he could.

BROKE HER ARM.

Miss Martha Porter Was Seriously Hurt In Florida.

A letter received yesterday from the party who are spending the winter in Florida states that on last Friday, in crossing a railroad trestle, Miss Martha Porter slipped and fell a distance of 25 feet, breaking an arm and severely spraining her ankle. Medical aid was secured at once, and Miss Porter is now recovering as rapidly as the circumstances will allow.

DIRTY WORK

The Men Who Are Guilty of It Are Not Manly.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—The opponents of Joseph F. Marshall, the choice of the masses for the state senate, since Hon. A. H. McCoy was forced off the ticket, have awakened to the fact that they have a foe man worthy of their steel, and that they cannot place their candidate with as much ease as they anticipated. In fact, they now realize that they are treading on dangerous ground, and that it will require desperate work to hold their own in this city of East Liverpool, where the workmen are admirers of fair play, and will vote as per good judgment and intelligence dictate, and not at the despotic command of any one.

And now the opposition are resorting to absolute meanness, unworthy of common manhood. They have approached men in this city in an underhanded, contemptible manner, asserting that Joseph F. Marshall is a drinking man, when they approach a lover of sobriety. Then when they strike a man who does not care about this special feature, they declare that Joseph F. Marshall is opposed to President McKinley and his administration.

See here, you lovers of fair play and common, square, honorable, everyday manhood, when these falsifiers approach you in this manner, simply say to them:

"See here, Munchausen, thou prince of liars, I know thee to be off thy base. Thou art a slanderer of the deepest dye. I know Joseph F. Marshall, and know him to be a true, sober, honorable man, who will not stoop to meanness of any kind or character. I know him to be a firm, unfaltering admirer and friend of President McKinley. I know, on his solemn word of honor, that he will stand by the administration and fulfill the wishes of his constituents, and I know that the fellows who are maligning him and lying about him are just a little meaner than Satan wants them to be. You'll excuse me, base slanderer, for plain speaking; but, let me tell you, your evil work, like chickens, will come home to your own roost. People who live in glass houses should not indulge in stone throwing. I'm a believer in fair play. A believer in the right to cast my ballot for the man I think best fitted for the position, and that man is Joseph F. Marshall, the choice of the people."

FAIR PLAY

ANOTHER TERM.

George C. Murphy Is Wanted In the School Board.

Many friends of George C. Murphy are anxious to have him continue as a member of the board of education, and it is more than a possibility that he will be a candidate. Mr. Murphy was appointed to fill out the term of Murray Nickle, and has done it so well that the demand for his return to the position next term is general. Mr. Murphy is being strongly urged to become a candidate, and there are reasons for believing that his name will be on the ticket.

LATER—Mr. Murphy this afternoon gave his consent, and will be a candidate.

TO BE BURIED TOMORROW.

The Remains of Mrs. Corcoran Brought Here Today.

The remains of Mrs. Thomas Corcoran, who died in Pittsburgh yesterday, were brought to this city this afternoon. The body was taken to the Hilbert residence in Second street, and funeral services will be held at St. Aloysius church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, Reverend Father Smythe officiating. The death of Mrs. Corcoran was a great shock to her family and friends in this city. Although she has been very ill, few believed she was in a dangerous condition.

ATTACKED BY A DOG.

Clyde Larkins Had an Experience In Avondale Street.

Clyde Larkins was in the upper part of the city this afternoon when he was attacked by a dog. The canine rushed at him again and again, and he was unable to keep it away. At length he called for help and the dog was killed, but he was compelled to borrow a pair of trousers from a kind friend before he dared to venture down town.

JOE STANWAY'S STORY

Ted Hancock Had Insulted His Mother

AND HE KNOCKED HIM DOWN

Mrs. Dan Densmore Had a Long Tale of Abuse and Ill Treatment—A Charge of Assault and Battery Against the Husband—She Wants the Furniture.

Mayor Gilbert had more business last night, and something more than the usual stir was created about city hall.

Early in the evening Ted Hancock said some words to Mrs. Stanway at the Commercial House to which she objected. Her son, Joe Stanway the football player, was in the room, and lost no time in knocking Hancock down, and administering a rebuke that Hancock will not forget within the next few weeks. The row was heard by parties in the house, and a telephone message summoned the police. Officers Terrence and Bryan took the men to city hall where Hancock was locked up, and Stanway put up $10 for his appearance this morning. Hancock was charged with disorderly conduct, and plainly showed the marks of the thrashing he got when he appeared to plead not guilty this morning.

The next ripple of excitement was occasioned by the appearance of Mrs. Dan Densmore. She told a story of misery and ill treatment which at once won her the sympathy of all in the room. Her husband, she said had struck her on the head last Saturday, and had abused her so at other times that she could endure it no longer. She had decided to live apart from him, and she wanted the advice of Mayor Gilbert as to the best means of securing her property. Some things had been given her by her mother, and she wanted them. The story was long drawn out, and finally ended in a charge of assault and battery being laid against Densmore.

Will Bradley, whom Carrie Barton caused to be arrested, Saturday night, for coming into her apartments in the Farmer block, drunk, and insulting her, will be given a hearing tomorrow. Carrie said this morning that Will cried, and wanted her to withdraw the suit, but she is going to send him as far as the law will allow. He is still in jail, having failed to secure a bondsman.

LATER—Miss Barton this afternoon charged Bradley with assault, with intent to rape.

IT COMES LATE.

The Date For Easter This Year Will Be April 18.

Easter will come late this year, Ash Wednesday having fallen on March 3, which makes Easter Sunday come on April 18, almost as late as it can possibly come. Easter may come as early as March 22 and as late as April 25. It depends, as everybody knows, upon the phase of the moon but just the rate of computation is not always the Sunday that follows the full moon immediately following the spring equinox, March 21. If the full moon is on Sunday, Easter is the following Sunday.

A CITIZENS' TICKET.

The Prohibitionists Will Discuss It Tonight.

A movement is on foot this afternoon which may result in a citizen's ticket for the municipal election. The Prohibitionists are interested to a marked degree, and they will not nominate a ticket tonight if assured that all party lines will be broken down and a ticket made up of men of all parties named. It is not known what degree of success has attended the efforts of those behind the movement.

BROKE UP A STAG PARTY.

The Guests Made More Noise Than Chief Johnson Allows.

A stag party was held at Bradshaw hall last night, and a large number of young men were present. They started with the determination to enjoy the time, and were making more noise than the police allow when Chief Johnson and Officer Whan put an end to the wild hilarity. The affair was declared at an end, and the revelers were compelled to go home.

A BIG POTTERY

Will Replace the One Destroyed by Fire at Kokomo.

The new pottery which will be erected by Conradt Bros. at Kokomo, Ind., to replace the one destroyed by fire will be fireproof throughout. The main building will be 150x50 feet, four stories high and basement. The other building will be 120x45 feet and three stories high. Several firms are bidding on the erection of the plant, and it is expected the contract will be let in a few days.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MARCH 2.

UNION LABEL

THE LEADING YEAST MANUFACTURING CONCERNS OF THE WEST ARE FORMING A COMBINATION. THEY PROBABLY WANT TO RAISE THE PRICE.

SOME events that have lately come to light in New York should convince Mr. Cleveland of the wrong he did when he vetoed the immigration bill.

THERE is some sense left in the radical silver legislature of Colorado. The other day it quit discussing its favorite subject long enough to pass a bill prohibiting the sale of cigarettes.

IT matters not what will be the outcome of the Cretan matter King George and his brave subjects will receive the plaudits of the world. They have already shown that the old spirit still lives.

IF Japan really covets some of Spain's possessions in the Orient, the Yankees of the east may get into the old thing's hair, and do that which the original Yankees have not been allowed to do.

CHICAGO will not this year have a parade on St. Patrick's day, but the assertion that this is because all that old gentleman's friends will have gone to see Corbett battle with Fitzsimmons will probably be denied.

THE announcement that the game and fish law was seriously damaged by the amendment passed last winter, and there is now no reason why fish should not be shot in the streams of Ohio, will confirm the suspicion that some members of the legislature are not as brilliant as they might be.

THIS country can none too soon look seriously upon the danger from trusts. The last one found has a capital of many millions, and has already made its existence known by shutting down a number of car wheel manufacturers. The people always suffer from trusts, and yet the people have the power to abolish them.

LEVEL HEADED COUNCILMEN.

The city gives promise of growth and advancement during the next few years, and public improvements involving the expenditure of many thousands of dollars will be the result. In order that this money be expended wisely and economically it is necessary that the city be governed by men who know business and business methods. We must have a council whose members will see that East Liverpool gets value for what it pays. Municipal extravagance is an evil. It remains for the people to say whether that evil shall exist in this place.

A WISE POLICY.

The opinion is general that the special session of congress should not be burdened with anything beyond the enactment of the tariff law. There are many matters of importance, there always are, but they can well afford to wait until a measure providing protection and revenue has been established. If the Dingley bill becomes a law in time to have it enforced with the opening of the fiscal year, the country will be content to wait a few months for monetary and other reforms. Action on the tariff is what the people demand.

WELL STARTED.

President McKinley is well started. He has taken up the business of the government where it was dropped by his predecessor, and reports from Washington show that he is already settled to the work before him. Those who have been acquainted with him through many years know that he has an enormous capacity for work, and matters of moment will not be allowed to rest on his desk while he spends the time hunting ducks or chasing some delusion equally as unproductive of good for the people. If there is work to be done the president will do it, and then think of enjoyment.

A Strange Island.

Saghalien, on the eastern coast of Siberia, presents a very curious anomaly of climate. The island is bathed by two cold ocean currents, and in winter nothing protects it against the icy northwest winds coming from Siberia. At the sea level the snow falls continually and stays on the ground till the end of May, and the seashore is very cold. Farther inland, however, especially as we go higher up, the climate is modified—just the opposite to what is observed elsewhere. It has often been observed in Siberia and in central Europe that in winter the cold is greater in the plains and the valleys, and that the highlands have a sensibly milder temperature. It is as if the denser cold air accumulated in the lowlands. This fact is very often observed in our climate. There are several very good examples of it. All the trees and shrubs of a valley have been known to be killed by frost, while above a certain level, very clearly marked out, on the hill or the mountain, the vegetation has not suffered at all. The cold air often flows from the summits toward their bases. This is what takes place at Saghalien. The cold air accumulates in the low regions of the island and on the coast. The higher regions have a more elevated temperature. So it happens that the lower parts have an arctic vegetation, while the intermediate altitudes have the vegetation of a temperate zone, sometimes subtropical.

The birch, the ash, the pine, the fir abound in the low regions and form often impenetrable forests, but toward the center of the island appear bamboos, hydrangeas, aralias and other plants that one is greatly surprised to meet and whose presence can be explained only by the altogether abnormal climatic conditions of the island.—Cosmos.

Cause of Legislative Decay.

All the great modern democracies have to contend almost for existence against the popular disposition to treat elective offices as representative and to consider it of more importance that they should be filled by persons holding certain opinions than by persons most competent to perform their duties. The distinction between representing and administering seems plain enough, and yet the democratic tendency has been everywhere since the French revolution to obscure it. This has not unnaturally led to the idea that the offices are rewards for the persons who have done most to propagate or defend the views which they represent and ought to be given to them independently of their fitness. To this confusion of two distinct functions I must ascribe the deterioration which has been remarked so frequently in the legislatures of all democratic countries in modern times. The number of men of experience and special knowledge as well as of conspicuous men which they contain seems to decline steadily, while the interests committed to their charge as steadily seem to increase.

This disregard of special fitness, combined with the unwillingness to acknowledge that there can be anything special about any man, both of which are born of equality, constitutes the great defect of modern democracy.—E. L. Godkin in Atlantic.

His Views.

The Rev. R. S. Hawker, rector of Morwenston, in Cornwall, was the poet of his rocky and beautiful corner of England. It has been said of him that he was a poet first, a divine afterward.

His great and stirring song, "And Shall Trelawney Die?" will never be forgotten in Cornwall, and all his lyrics of the region are touched by such true and haunting local color that they can never be dissociated from the place. But, aside from his poetic gifts, this noted churchman had a fine sense of humor. Many persons doubted whether he was at one with his own church, or whether he had inner leanings toward the papal communion. Quirists, however, got little satisfaction out of him. One day some one asked him point blank, "What are your views?"

He walked up to his window and looked out on the Atlantic.

"If," said he, "my eyes were strong enough, I should have a perfect view of Labrador."—Youth's Companion.

A Note of Warning.

A number of the remedies commonly used for throat trouble have but little merit. The indiscriminate and careless use of some of them is attended with positive danger.

As a prominent example, Chlorate of Potash probably does a great deal more harm than good. Many people, while suffering from sore throat and like troubles, carry crystals or tablets of Chlorate of Potash in their pockets, and eat them almost like candy. Chlorate of Potash has a decided direct action on the kidneys and its unwise use in frequent and large doses irritates these organs and leads to really serious results, especially so in children.

Some may think this is sounding a false and needless alarm but as a single proof we wish to state that we have before us the November, 1894, copy of the Indiana Medical Journal, wherein are reported two deaths clearly due directly to this habit of using Chlorate of Potash with no regard to its powerful properties.

In the past there may have been some excuse for people trifling with dangerous and powerful drugs in the home treatment of Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy, as there was a lack of a valuable cure for these diseases. A remedy has recently been placed on sale especially for this class of troubles and it is meeting with a well-merited success, as every prudent mother wants such a remedy at hand. Its name is Tonsiline. It never fails. Your dealer has it in 25 and 50 cent bottles.

TO HONOR MCKINLEY.

Diplomatic Corps Will Call on Him Tomorrow.

THE PRESIDENT TOOK A WALK.

Previous to This He Gave a Public Reception—Saw His Mother Off to Mt. Vernon—Cabinet Officers Conferred With Him—Many Visitors.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—It has been arranged that the entire diplomatic corps shall be received by the president next Wednesday at noon. The corps will first pay their respects to Secretary Sherman at the state department at 11 o'clock and then will march across to the White House.

The president held a public reception at 3 o'clock in the east room yesterday afternoon, shaking the hands of over 1,000 people in about 20 minutes. In the long line was a little girl dressed as the Goddess of Liberty.

On returning to his office the members of the interstate commerce commission called in a body.

The chief justice and Mrs. Fuller made a social call late in the day, the president leaving his office to join Mrs. McKinley in receiving the callers. The chief justices of the court of claims also were received in the private parlors.

At 4:45 the president, accompanied by Secretary Porter, started for a walk along the avenues. This time he turned up Madison place, passing the Arlington and then went out Vermont avenue. He was stopped once or twice by persistent handshakers, but seemed not to be annoyed. It was a pleasant walk in the sunshine and after enjoying it for half an hour the president returned by way of the gardens in the rear of the executive mansion.

The president was at his desk early in the day, after seeing his mother off to Mt. Vernon.

One of the first callers was Mr. John Hay, who, it is expected, will be nominated as ambassador to the court of St. James. He had a brief talk with the president and then gave way to Senator Wolcott of Colorado, who saw the president for the first time since his return from Europe in connection with the international binetial conference. The call lasted 15 minutes, and as understood to have given opportunity for a brief talk on Mr. Wolcott's mission. Then followed a number of prominent senators and congressmen, among them Grosvenor of Ohio.

Mingled with these congressional delegations were public men whose names have been prominently mentioned in connection with responsible offices, including Bellamy Storer, whose appointment of assistant secretary of State is said to be assured, and Perry Heath of Indiana, a probable assistant secretary of the treasury.

Some of the delegations freely stated to inquire the object of their visit. Senator Foraker and Bishop Hurst also called.

Secretary of State Sherman called passing into the cabinet room. At this time a number of senators and members were in the president's private office, while many more were awaiting an audience. The president at once excused himself and joined Mr. Sherman in the cabinet room. They were alone together for some time, the crowd outside swelling in the meantime to large numbers. It was understood that the call related to the more important foreign appointments about to be sent to the senate.

With these came others bent on curiosity. To clear the corridors somewhat the president threw open his office and invited the callers to pass through. They paid their respects and moved on, only the congressmen and other more prominent callers being accorded private interviews. Many of the callers had applications, which passed into the hands of Secretaries Porter and Boyle.

Secretary Bliss called, before starting for New York, and Senators Quay and Penrose before the former left for Florida.

Secretary Alger also conferred with the president.

Wm. Edwards of Belvidere, O., wants to be steward at the White House.

Major Bittner of the St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette is opposing the aspirations of ex-President Leishman of the Carnegie company of Pittsburg to the Swiss mission.

James R. Dunn of Massillon, O., expects to be appointed consul to Dresden in recognition of his work in organizing the Wheelmen's League in the last campaign, and Robert Porter, formerly superintendent of the census, wants to go as minister to Japan, a post much sought after.

Secretary Bliss left here for his home in New York at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, expecting to return by Friday morning. Mr. Bliss stated that the object of his trip was merely to arrange for his removal to Washington, whence he came less than a week ago for a brief visit. He said he had decided to go on no appointments and his trip had no connection with offices. The callers at the interior department came in a steady stream all day. A number of applications for offices were presented. One for assistant attorney general, to succeed Judge Lionberger, was presented through Representative Taylor of Ohio, but Secretary Bliss intimated that he wanted to make his own selection, and that it might be hard to find a lawyer to come for $5,000 a year and to whom he wanted to trust his legal affairs. General Cyrus Bussey and Attorney Hammond of Altoona, Pa., the former assistant secretary under the Harrison administration, are avowed candidates for assistant secretary.

In Close Relations With McKinley.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Captain Theodore A. Bingham, corps of engineers, has been detailed as superintendent of public buildings and grounds in this city, which was one of the places filled by General Wilson before his promotion to the head of the engineer corps. This post usually brings a man into rather close relations with the president.

Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $213,243,324; gold reserve, $150,804,783.

DEATH OF MRS. BEECHER.

Occurred on the Tenth Anniversary of the Death of Her Husband.

STAMFORD, Conn., March 9.—The death of Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher occurred on the death of her famous husband. William Beecher, one of her sons, reached Stamford Saturday evening and remained until Sunday night, when he left for New York. Her death was feared then, but her marvelous constitution had so frequently enabled her to rally from sinking spells that her son deemed it safe to leave his mother's bedside. At the deathbed were gathered the family of Rev. Samuel Scoville, including the clergyman, his wife, who is the daughter of Mrs. Beecher, and Mrs. Scoville's two children, a daughter and son, and Mrs. Ballard of Massachusetts, a niece of Mrs. Beecher.

Eunice Beecher was born in 1813 in Sutton, Mass., the daughter of Dr. Ballard, a physician. Several of Mrs. Beecher's brothers won high distinction.

Her first meeting with Henry Ward Beecher, one learns from her reminiscences, was in the early part of May, 1830. He was a classmate of her brothers' in Amherst College. At that time young Beecher was not quite 17 years old. "After supper," she says, "I prepared to wind a skein of silk by putting it over the back of a chair, but ne insisted upon holding it for me. It was something how thoroughly knotted and tangled became that nice skein of silk during the operation. After spending half of my evening in untangling it, the work was at last done." It was that same evening that the young girl began to wind herself around Henry Beecher's heart, for in less than a year they were engaged.

The young couple went to housekeeping in Lawrenceburg. Mr. Beecher's salary was $300 a year, and if the young minister stripped off his coat, rolled up his sleeves and tied on a big apron to "help wash the dreadfully dirty windows" of their first little home the devoted wife matched his sacrifice in taking in sewing and keeping boarders. Side by side they struggled through the succeeding years. On June 13, 1847, Plymouth church was formally organized, and on the following day a unanimous call was extended to Mr. Beecher, and henceforth Brooklyn became the scene of his labors.

Mrs. Beecher was devotedly attached to her husband and children. Of the latter four are living and four are dead. One of the living is Herbert Beecher, captain of a steamboat in Fort Townsend, Wash.

Mrs. Beecher lived in a small but attractive red house at the corner of Hicks and Orange streets, Brooklyn. It was a quaint, cozy home, full of memories of the distinguished divine.

NO GOLD STANDARD IN JAPAN.

Merely a Compromise Measure Introduced in the Diet.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—In view of a cablegram received at the Japanese legation, the announcement recently made that Japan had adopted the gold standard seems to have been premature. On the 2d inst. a bill was introduced into the diet for the adoption of the gold standard with the following provision:

The present gold yen, the standard coin of the country will according to this measure, be circulated at double its present value, while the one yen silver piece will circulate at half its value until abolished by an edict of the emperor. The subsidiary coinage of the country will remain untouched and free coinage will be abolished from the date of the promulgation of this edict, which is set for Oct. 1, 1897.

The status of this bill up to date is merely that of any bill introduced into one house of our own congress. It has not yet been passed, and it is not certain that it will be. The sentiment in Japan favors a reorganization of the money system, and during the past year a mixed commission of bankers, merchants, politicians and professional men was appointed to consider the subject. Their report was by no means conclusive.

Some favored the retention of the free silver coinage, some were in favor of a ratio of 16 to 1, such as was advocated in the last campaign in this country, while others favored the gold standard. The present bill is a compromise measure, but whether or not it will be passed members of the legation hesitate to predict.

TARIFF FRAMERS INDUSTRIOUS.

Free List to be Smaller Than Under the McKinley Law.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee of the house are working industriously to complete the tariff bill. Three sessions of the committee will be held daily until it is completed. With the exception of the wool and sugar schedules, all the others are now more or less complete.

The free list of the Dingley bill will probably be much smaller than that of the act of 1893. The McKinley law was framed rather with a view to reducing rather than increasing revenues, and now, with such urgent necessity for revenue, the committee has decided to take from the free list such articles as will stand a small duty without becoming a burden upon the consumer.

A WASTE OF MONEY.

Both Cannon and Sayers Condemn Appropriations.

DEMAND GETTING OUTRAGEOUS.

The Chiefest of Sinners Is Usually Any Party That Happens to Be in Power. Impossible to Supply Sufficient Revenue by Present Modes.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Representative Cannon of Illinois, chairman of the appropriations committee of the house, and Mr. Sayers of Texas, who is at the head of the minority of that committee, have prepared their reviews of the appropriations of the congress that ended and they were printed in The Congressional Record this morning.

Mr. Cannon makes the total appropriation submitted to the president for his approval at the last session, including the general deficiency, which failed in conference, $518,103,458 or $35,383,276 less than the estimates submitted to congress by the executive. The appropriations for the first session were $515,845,194, making a total for the congress of $1,043,437,018, which he says is $49,947,812 more than the appropriations for the preceding congress.

The increase, he points out, includes fortifications, $12,563,467; for river and harbor works, including contracts therefor, $2,476,506; for public buildings, none of which were authorized by the Fifty-fourth congress, $2,343,394; for the postal service, $11,454,305; for the naval establishment, $8,947,323, and on account of permanent appropriations, mainly to meet interest and sinking fund charges for the bonds issued by the Cleveland administration, $24,983,744.

"The appropriations are," says Mr. Cannon, "in my judgment, in excess of the legitimate demands of the public service. But this fact, while greatly to be deplored, is not, in my opinion, properly chargeable to the action of either of the great political parties of the country. It is the result of conditions accruing out of the rules of the house and out of the rules, practices and so-called courtesies of the senate, together with the irresponsible manner whereby the executive submits to congress estimates to meet expenditures for the conduct of the government. If the appropriations made by congress have been extravagant and beyond the revenues of the government, how much more so have been the estimates of the executive? The record shows that in no instance during many years past have the appropriations made by congress measured up to the full amounts recommended and asked for by the administration."

"It is hoped, and I believe, that the coming president, with his long experience as a distinguished member of the legislative branch of this government, will exact of his cabinet counsellors some degree of wholesome effort in the direction of intelligent recommendation of public expenditures to the end that congress may not to have strive unaided and alone toward bringing out public expenditures within the sum of our public revenues."

In discussing the remedies for keeping down appropriations, Mr. Cannon makes the following pertinent suggestions:

"The remedy for this evil is for the great committees of the house and senate on the judiciary, claims and war claims, to formulate an intelligent measure that will provide a tribunal of final jurisdiction, whether these claims may be sent for fall and intelligent consideration. By such a measure those who have honest and legitimate claims against the government can be paid."

Mr. Cannon says there are too many appropriation bills. Instead of 14 there ought not to be more than ten, some being consolidated.

Mr. Sayers in his statement makes the total appropriations of this congress $54,197,812 in excess of the Fifty-third congress; $16,332,470 over the Fifty-second congress, and $7,757,908 in excess over the Fifty-first congress. He says:

"The present congress, organized in both branches by the Republicans, has made or sent to the president for his approval, including the general deficiency bill as agreed upon, appropriations in excess of those made by the Fifty-third congress, which was controlled by the Democrats, to the extent of $54,197,812. The principal elements of this increase are on account of fortifications, river and harbor works, the postal service and the naval establishment. In addition to this enormous increase in direct appropriations, this congress at its first session authorized contracts for the construction of river and harbor works, fortifications, increase of the navy and other public works amounting to $75,816,480.

At least two-thirds of one-half of this large sum remains to be provided for by future congresses to that extent constitutes a fixed charge against the revenue of the country, which, by reason of extravagant appropriations, now falls short of $5,000,000 a month of meeting the expenditures of the government."

After discussing in detail the increases he concludes:

"The appropriations made for the support of the federal government have grown to such startling proportions within the last dozen years as to render it well-nigh impossible to devise means of raising revenue wherewith to meet the expenditures."

"If the new administration just about to cross the threshold of power carries out its pledges by giving to the country a protective tariff, it will utterly fail to produce the means of meeting expenditures, if they are to be maintained on the existing high plane, unless, peradventure, the protective tariff measure should be supplemented with a tax on coffee and tea and perhaps other taxes of an equally enormous nature."

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MARCH 9.

UNION LABEL

The leading yeast manufacturing concerns of the west are forming a combination. They probably want to raise the price.

Some events that have lately come to light in New York should convince Mr. Cleveland of the wrong he did when he vetoed the immigration bill.

There is some sense left in the radical silver legislature of Colorado. The other day it quit discussing its favorite subject long enough to pass a bill prohibiting the sale of cigarettes.

It matters not what will be the outcome of the Cretan matter King George and his brave subjects will receive the plaudits of the world. They have already shown that the old spirit still lives.

If Japan really covets some of Spain's possessions in the Orient, the Yankees of the east may get into the old thing's hair, and do that which the original Yankees have not been allowed to do.

CHICAGO will not this year have a parade on St. Patrick's day, but the assertion that this is because all that old gentleman's friends will have gone to see Corbett battle with Fitzsimmons will probably be denied.

The announcement that the game and fish law was seriously damaged by the amendment passed last winter, and there is now no reason why fish should not be shot in the streams of Ohio, will confirm the suspicion that some members of the legislature are not as brilliant as they might be.

This country can none too soon look seriously upon the danger from trusts. The last one found has a capital of many millions, and has already made its existence known by shutting down a number of car wheel manufacturing. The people always suffer from trusts, and yet the people have the power to abolish them.

LEVEL HEADED COUNCILMEN.

The city gives promise of growth and advancement during the next few years, and public improvements involving the expenditure of many thousands of dollars will be the result. In order that this money be expended wisely and economically it is necessary that the city be governed by men who know business and business methods. We must have a council whose members will see that East Liverpool gets value for what it pays. Municipal extravagance is an evil. It remains for the people to say whether that evil shall exist in this place.

A WISE POLICY.

The opinion is general that the special session of congress should not be burdened with anything beyond the enactment of the tariff law. There are many matters of importance, there always are, but they can all wait until a measure providing protection and revenue has been established. If the Dingley bill becomes a law in time to have it enforced with the opening of the fiscal year, the country will be content to wait a few months for monetary and other reforms. Action on the tariff is what the people demand.

WELL STARTED.

President McKinley is well started. He has taken up the business of the government where it was dropped by his predecessor, and reports from Washington show that he is already settled to the work before him. Those who have been acquainted with him through many years know that he has an enormous capacity for work, and matters of moment will not be allowed to rest on his desk while he spends the time hunting ducks or chasing some delusion equally as unproductive of good for the people. If there is work to be done the president will do it, and then think of enjoyment.

A Strange Island.

Saghalien, on the eastern coast of Siberia, presents a very curious anomaly of climate. The island is bathed by two cold ocean currents, and in winter nothing protects it against the icy northwest winds coming from Siberia. At the sea level the snow falls continually and stays on the ground till the end of May, and the seasons are very cold. Farther inland, however, especially as we go higher up, the climate is modified—just the opposite to what is observed elsewhere. It has often been observed in Siberia and in central Europe that in winter the cold is greater in the plains and the valleys, and that the highlands have a sensibly milder temperature. It is as if the denser cold air accumulated in the lowlands. This fact is very often observed in our climate. There are several very good examples of it. All the trees and shrubs of a valley have been known to be killed by frost, while above a certain level, very clearly marked out, on the hill or the mountain, the vegetation has not suffered at all. The cold air often flows from the summits toward their bases. This is what takes place at Saghalien. The cold air accumulates in the low regions of the island and on the coast. The higher regions have a more elevated temperature. So it happens that the lower parts have an arctic vegetation, while the intermediate altitudes have the vegetation of a temperate zone, sometimes subtropical.

The birch, the ash, the pine, the fir abound in the low regions and form often impenetrable forests, but toward the center of the island appear bamboos, hydrangeas, aralias and other plants that one is greatly surprised to meet and whose presence can be explained only by the altogether abnormal climatic conditions of the island.—Cosmos.

Cause of Legislative Decay.

All the great modern democracies have to contend almost for existence against the popular disposition to treat elective offices as representative and to consider it of more importance that they should be filled by persons holding certain opinions than by persons most competent to perform their duties. The distinction between representing and administering seems plain enough, and yet the democratic tendency has been everywhere since the French revolution to obscure it. This has not unnaturally led to the idea that the offices are rewards for the persons who have done most to propagate or defend the views which they represent and ought to be given to them independently of their fitness. To this confusion of two distinct functions I must ascribe the deterioration which has been remarked so frequently in the legislatures of all democratic countries in modern times. The number of men of experience or special knowledge as well as of conspicuous men which they contain seems to decline steadily, while the interests committed to their charge as steadily seem to increase.

This disregard of special fitness, combined with the unwillingness to acknowledge that there can be anything special about any man, both of which are born of equality, constitutes the great defect of modern democracy.—E. L. Godkin in Atlantic.

His Views.

The Rev. R. S. Hawker, rector of Morwenston, in Cornwall, was the poet of his rocky and beautiful corner of England. It has been said of him that he was a poet first, a divine afterward.

His great and stirring song, "And Shall Trelawney Die?" will never be forgotten in Cornwall, and all his lyrics of the region are touched by such true and haunting local color that they can never be dissociated from the place. But, aside from his poetic gifts, this noted churchman had a fine sense of humor. Many persons doubted whether he was at one with his own church, or whether he had inner leanings toward the papal communion. Quakers, however, got little satisfaction out of him. One day some one asked him point blank, "What are your views?"

He walked up to his window and looked out on the Atlantic. "If," said he, "my eyes were strong enough, I should have a perfect view of Labrador."—Youth's Companion.

A Note of Warning.

A number of the remedies commonly used for throat trouble have but little merit. The indiscriminate and careless use of some of them is attended with positive danger.

As a prominent example, Chlorate of Potash probably does a great deal more harm than good. Many people, when suffering from sore throat and like troubles, carry Chlorate of Potash or Chlorate of Potash in their pockets, and eat them almost like candy. Chlorate of Potash has a decided direct action on the kidneys and its unwise use in frequent and large doses irritates these organs and leads to really serious results, especially so in children.

Some may think this is sounding a false and needless alarm but as a single proof we wish to state that we have before us the November, 1894, copy of the Indiana Medical Journal, wherein are reported 14 deaths clearly due directly to this habit of using Chlorate of Potash with no regard to its powerful properties.

In the past there may have been some excuse for people trifling with dangerous and powerful drugs in the home treatment of Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy, as there was a lack of a valuable cure for these diseases. A remedy has recently been placed on sale specially for this class of troubles and it is meeting with a well-merited success, as every prudent mother wants such a remedy at hand. Its name is Tonsiline. It never fails. Your dealer has it in 25 and 50 cent bottles.

TO HONOR MCKINLEY.

Diplomatic Corps Will Call on Him Tomorrow.

THE PRESIDENT TOOK A WALK.

Previous to This He Gave a Public Reception—Saw His Mother Off to Mt. Vernon—Cabinet Officers Conferred With Him—Many Visitors.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—It has been arranged that the entire diplomatic corps shall be received by the president next Wednesday at noon. The corps first will pay their respects to Secretary Sherman at the state department at 11 o'clock and then will march across to the White House.

The president held a public reception at 3 o'clock in the east room yesterday afternoon, shaking the hands of over 1,000 people in about 20 minutes. In the long line was a little girl dressed as the Goddess of Liberty.

On returning to his office the members of the interstate commerce commission called in a body.

The chief justice and Mrs. Fuller made a social call late in the day, the president leaving his office to join Mrs. McKinley in receiving the callers. The chief justices of the court of claims also were received in the private parlors.

At 4:45 the president, accompanied by Secretary Porter, started for a walk along the avenues. This time he turned up Madison place, passing the Arlington and then went out Vermont avenue. He was stopped once or twice by persistent handshakers, but seemed not to be annoyed. It was a pleasant walk in the sunshine and after enjoying it for half an hour the president returned by way of the gardens in the rear of the executive mansion.

The president was at his desk early in the day, after seeing his mother off to Mt. Vernon.

One of the first callers was Mr. John Hay, who, it is expected, will be nominated as ambassador to the court of St. James. He had a brief talk with the president and then gave way to Senator Wolcott of Colorado, who saw the president for the first time since his return from Europe in connection with the international binetinal conference. The call lasted 15 minutes, and is understood to have given opportunity for a brief talk on Mr. Wolcott's mission. Then followed a number of prominent senators and congressmen, among them Grosvenor of Ohio.

Mingled with these congressional delegations were public men whose names have been prominently mentioned in connection with responsible offices, including Hellamy Storer, whose appointment of assistant secretary of State is said to be assured, and Perry Heath of Indiana, a probable assistant secretary of the treasury.

Some of the delegations freely stated to inquire the object of their visit. Senator Foraker and Bishop Hurst also called.

Secretary of State Sherman called passing into the cabinet room. At this time a number of senators and members were in the president's private office, while many more were waiting an audience. The president at once excused himself and joined Mr. Sherman in the cabinet room. They were alone together for some time, the crowd outside swelling in the meantime to large numbers. It was understood that the call related to the more important foreign appointments about to be sent to the senate.

With these came others bent on curiosity. To clear the corridors somewhat the president threw open his office and invited the callers to pass through. They paid their respects and moved on, only the congressmen and other more prominent callers being accorded private interviews. Many of the callers had applications, which passed into the hands of Secretaries Foraker and Boyle. Secretary Bliss called before starting for New York, and Senators Quay and Penrose before the former left for Florida.

Secretary Alger also conferred with the president.

Wm. Edwards of Beldvidere, O., wants to be steward at the White House.

Major Biting of the St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette is opposing the aspirations of ex-President Leishmann of the Carnegie company of Pittsburgh to the Swiss mission.

James R. Dunn of Massillon, O., expects to be appointed consul to Dresden in recognition of his work in organizing the Wheelmen's League in the last campaign, and Robert Porter, formerly superintendent of the census, wants to go as minister to Japan, a post much sought after.

Secretary Bliss left here for his home in New York at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, expecting to return by Friday morning. Mr. Bliss stated that the object of his trip was merely to arrange for his removal to Washington, whence he came less than a week ago for a brief visit, without any idea of remaining for four years. He said he had decided on no appointments and his trip had no connection with offices. The callers at the interior department came in a steady stream all day. A number of applications for offices were presented. One for assistant attorney general, to succeed Judge Lionberger, was presented through Representative Taylor of Ohio, but Secretary Bliss intimated that he wanted to make his own selection, and that it might be hard to find a lawyer to come for $5,000 a year and to whom he wanted to trust his legal affairs. General Cyrus Bussey and Attorney Hammond of Altoona, Pa., former assistant secretary under the Harrison administration, are avowed candidates for assistant secretary.

DEATH OF MRS. BEECHER.

Occurred on the Tenth Anniversary of the Death of Her Husband.

STAMFORD, Conn., March 9.—The death of Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher occurred on the death of her famous husband. William Beecher, one of her sons, reached Stamford Saturday evening and remained until Sunday night, when he left for New York. How death was feared then, but her marvelous constitution had so frequently enabled her to rally from sinking spells that her son deemed it safe to leave his mother's bedside. At the deathbed were gathered the family of Rev. Samuel Scoville, including the clergyman, his wife, who is the daughter of Mrs. Beecher, and Mrs. Scoville's two children, a daughter and son, and Mrs. Bullard of Massachusetts, a niece of Mrs. Beecher.

Eunice Beecher was born in 1813 in Sutton, Mass., the daughter of Dr. Bullard, a physician. Several of Mrs. Beecher's brothers won high distinction.

Her first meeting with Henry Ward Beecher, one learns from her reminiscences, was in the early part of May, 1830. He was a classmate of her brothers' in Amherst College. At that time young Beecher was not quite 17 years old. "After supper," she says, "I prepared to wind a skein of silk by putting it over the back of a chair, but he insisted upon holding it for me. It was astonishing how thoroughly knotted and tangled became that nice skein of silk during the operation. After spending half of my evening in untangling it, the work was at last done." It was that same evening that the young girl began to wind herself around Henry Beecher's heart, for in less than a year they were engaged.

The young couple went to housekeeping in Lawrenceburg. Mr. Beecher's salary was $300 a year, and if the young minister stripped off his coat, rolled up his sleeves and tied on a big apron to "help wash the dreadfully dirty windows" of their first little home the devoted wife matched his sacrifice in taking in sewing and keeping boards. Side by side they struggled through the succeeding years. On June 13, 1847, Plymouth church was formally organized, and on the following day a unanimous call was extended to Mr. Beecher, and henceforth Brooklyn became the scene of his labors.

Mrs. Beecher was devotedly attached to her husband and children. Of the latter four are living and four are dead. One of the living is Herbert Beecher, captain of a steamboat at Fort Townsend, Wash.

Mrs. Beecher lived in a small but attractive red house at the corner of Hicks and Orange streets, Brooklyn. It was a quaint, cozy home, full of mementoes of the distinguished divine.

NO GOLD STANDARD IN JAPAN.

Merely a Compromise Measure Introduced in the Diet.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—In view of a cablegram received at the Japanese legation, the announcement recently made that Japan had adopted the gold standard seems to have been premature.

On the 2d inst. a bill was introduced into the diet for the adoption of the gold standard with the following provision: The present gold yen, the standard coin of the country, will, according to this measure, be circulated at double its present value, while the one yen silver piece will circulate at half its value until abolished by an edict of the emperor. The subsidiary coinage of the country will remain untouched and free coinage will be abolished from the date of the promulgation of this edict, which is set for Oct. 1, 1897.

The status of this bill up to date is merely that of any bill introduced into one house of our own congress. It has not yet been passed, and it is not certain that it will be. The sentiment in Japan favors a reorganization of the money system, and during the past year a mixed commission of bankers, merchants, politicians and professional men was appointed to consider the subject. Their report was by no means conclusive.

Some favored the retention of the free silver coinage, some were in favor of a ratio of 16 to 1, such as was advocated in the last campaign in this country, while others favored the gold standard. The present bill is a compromise measure, but whether or not it will be passed members of the legation hesitate to predict.

TARIFF FRAMERS INDUSTRIOUS.

Free List to be Smaller Than Under the McKinley Law.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee of the house are working industriously to complete the tariff bill. Three sessions of the committee will be held daily until it is completed. With the exception of the wool and sugar schedules, all the others are now more or less complete.

The free list of the Dingley bill will probably be much smaller than that of the act of 1893. The McKinley law was framed rather with a view to reducing rather than increasing revenues, and now, with such urgent necessity for revenue, the committee has decided to take from the free list such articles as will stand a small duty without becoming a burden upon the consumer.

A WASTE OF MONEY.

Both Cannon and Sayers Condemn Appropriations.

DEMAND GETTING OUTRAGEOUS.

The Chiefest of Sinners Is Usually Any Party That Happens to Be in Power. Impossible to Supply Sufficient Revenue by Present Modes.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Representative Cannon of Illinois, chairman of the appropriations committee of the house, and Mr. Sayers of Texas, who is at the head of the minority of that committee, have prepared their reviews of the appropriations of the congress that ended and they were printed in The Congressional Record this morning.

Mr. Cannon makes the total appropriation submitted to the president for his approval at the last session, including the general deficiency, which failed in conference, $518,103,458 or $25,383,276 less than the estimates submitted to congress by the executive. The appropriations for the first session were $515,845,194, making a total for the congress of $1,033,937,018, which he says is $49,947,812 more than the appropriations for the preceding congress.

The increase, he points out, includes fortifications, $12,563,467; for river and harbor works, including contracts therefor, $2,476,506; for public buildings, none of which were authorized by the Fifty-fourth congress, $2,343,394; for the postal service, $11,454,305; for the naval establishment, $8,947,523, and on account of permanent appropriations, mainly to meet interest and sinking fund charges for the bonds issued by the Cleveland administration, $24,983,744.

"The appropriations are," says Mr. Cannon, "in my judgment, in excess of the legitimate demands of the public service. But this fact, while greatly to be deplored, is not, in my opinion, properly chargeable to the action of either of the great political parties of the country. It is the result of conditions accruing out of the rules of the house and out of the rules, practices and so-called courtesies of the senate, together with the irresponsible manner whereby the executive submits to congress estimates to meet expenditures for the conduct of the government. If the appropriations made by congress have been extravagant and beyond the revenues of the government, how much more so have been the estimates of the executive? The record shows that in no instance during many years past have the appropriations made by congress measured up to the full amounts recommended and asked for by the administration.

"It is hoped, and I believe, that the coming president, with his long experience as a distinguished member of the legislative branch of this government, will exact of his cabinet counsellors some degree of wholesome effort in the direction of intelligent recommendation of public expenditures to the end that congress may not have to strive unaided and alone toward bringing out public expenditures within the sum of our public revenues."

In discussing the remedies for keeping down appropriations, Mr. Cannon makes the following pertinent suggestions: "The remedy for this evil is for the great committees of the house and senate on the judiciary, claims and war claims, to formulate an intelligent measure that will provide a tribunal of final jurisdiction, whither these claims may be sent for full and intelligent consideration. By such a measure those who have honest and legitimate claims against the government can be paid."

Mr. Cannon says there are too many appropriation bills. Instead of 14 there ought not to be more than ten, some being consolidated.

Mr. Sayers in his statement makes the total appropriations of this congress $54,197,812 in excess of the Fifty-third congress; $16,352,470 over the Fifty-second congress, and $7,757,908 in excess over the Fifty-first congress. He says:

"The present congress, organized in both branches by the Republicans, has made or sent to the president for his approval, including the general deficiency bill as agreed upon, appropriations in excess of those made by the Fifty-third congress, which was controlled by the Democrats, to the extent of $54,197,812. The principal elements of this increase are on account of fortifications, river and harbor works, the postal service and the naval establishment. In addition to this enormous increase in direct appropriations, this congress at its first session authorized contract liabilities for river and harbor works, fortifications, increase of the navy and other public works amounting to $75,816,480.

At least two-thirds of one-half of this large sum remains to be provided for by future congresses to that extent constitutes a fixed charge against the revenue of the country, which, by reason of extravagant appropriations, now falls short of $5,000,000 a month of meeting the expenditures of the government."

After discussing in detail the increases he concludes: "The appropriations made for the support of the federal government have grown to such startling proportions within the last dozen years as to render it well-nigh impossible to devise means of raising revenue wherewith to meet the expenditures."

"If the new administration just about to cross the threshold of power carries out its pledges by giving to the country a protective tariff, it will utterly fail to produce the means of meeting expenditures, if they are to be maintained on the existing high plane, unless peradventure, the protective tariff measure should be supplemented with a tax on coffee and tea and perhaps other taxes of an equally enormous nature."

THE KING IS POLITE, YET FIRM.

He Demands the Final Annexation of Crete, but Agrees to the Sultan's Rule Temporarily—Wants Greek Army to Remain Under Powers' Direction.

LONDON, March 9.—The reply of Greece to the identical notes of the powers is regarded in official circles here as being of a most favorable nature and it is believed that the crisis will now soon be ended, as the Greek note at once furnishes a basis upon which a compromise satisfactory to all concerned can be speedily reached.

ATHENS, March 9.—The reply demands the annexation of Crete to the kingdom on the broad grounds of his native rights and of a community of religion and race, but offers to withdraw the Greek fleet and recognize temporarily the sultan's suzerainty on condition that the powers entrust to the Greek army in the island the task of pacification.

The reply is conciliatory in tone fully recognizing the important objects the powers have in view and offering to withdraw her fleet from Crete waters. Greece, however, points to the fact that it is impossible for her to withdraw her troops from that island, in view of the danger of further massacres. On the other hand, Greece offers to place her troops in Crete under the control of the powers in order that they may be available for the restoration of order.

Referring to the statements made to the effect that the Cretans prefer autonomy to annexation with Greece, the government of Greece suggests that the Cretans be allowed to choose their own government.

Greece, the reply adds, is convinced that autonomy will not pacify Crete and that another chapter in the horrors of Mussulman fanaticism will be added to the six periods of anarchy which have already decimated the island. Continuing, the reply says it is impossible, in view of the past, to advise the Cretans to lay down their arms, holding that this advice would not be obeyed, even if tendered.

The Greek reply also says that since the foreign ships preserve order in Crete waters, and prevent the landing of Turkish troops, the presence of the Greek ships is unnecessary, but it is explained the Greek army cannot leave the Christians to the risk of Mussulman fanaticism and the Turkish troops. The Greek government holds that order in Crete would be immediately restored if the powers would have confidence in the Greek troops and permit them to join in the work of pacifying the island.

A WORTHLESS CHARACTER'S DEED.

He Killed His Wife and Wounded Others in a Wisconsin Town.

KAUKANA, Wis., March 9.—As the result of a shooting affray here, one woman lies dead and two other persons probably mortally wounded. A worthless character named Peter Ross did the shooting.

Mrs. Peter Ross was instantly killed. The wounded are: Fred Schaubel, Appleton, Wis., shot through abdomen, and Kittie Dupret, shot in breast, probably fatally injured.

The victims had driven through Kaukana from Appleton, going to the questionable resort. Ross secured a rig and followed. Upon arrival at the house Ross drew a revolver and fired, instantly killing his wife, who had left him several weeks ago. He then fired at the other woman, the ball entering her right breast. Schaubel intervened and received a ball in the abdomen. Ross surrendered to the authorities.

A Bloody Encounter Nearly Came to Pass in Wisconsin.

A baggage and mail car were filled with deputies, but the storm spoiled the plans of the bandits and no conflict occurred. It is understood that one of the gang furnished the officials with the entire plan which the robbers adopted.

OVERLIN RIDER A SURPRISE.

He Shows Up Well in the Cleveland Bicycle Race.

CLEVELAND, March 9.—Louis Gimm, Albert Schoch, Frank Waller, George Dench, Ed. Gifford, Charles Ashinger and Harry Wood are in the six days' bicycle race at the Central armory here. The racers are to contest five and a half hours each day up to Saturday, beginning at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and riding until 10. On Saturday they will start at 2:30 and the finish of the race will be at 10:30 Saturday evening. The race will make 36 hours in all. The gate receipts will be divided between the riders. The 15 lap track was not wide enough to start all of them on the tape, so three were sent away in front, with the remaining four following.

The race developed a decided surprise in Harry Wood, the Oberlin rider, a novice at six days' racing. At the start Ashinger, through a remarkable series of accidents, lost over a mile. Gifford, Dench and Wood went out and gained a lap on Schoch, Gimm and Waller. Wood went right on for another, and this time Gimm stayed with him. This put Wood a lap ahead of Gimm, Gifford and Dench and two laps ahead of Waller and Schoch.

Later Gifford fouled Wood in a brush, giving him a terrible fall, for which Gifford was fined a lap. Wood pluckily remounted within the three-laps allowance and lost no distance. No more laps were gained by anyone and Wood won out at the finish, Gifford and Gimm being unable to pass him, though they tried hard. Dench was taken sick and was off the track for half an hour, leaving him a bad seven. Following are the scores at the close:

Wood, 115 miles 1 lap; Gimm, 115 miles; Gifford, 114 miles 14 laps; Waller, 114 miles 14 laps; Schoch, 114 miles 14 laps; Ashinger, 113 miles 13 laps; Dench, 102 miles 7 laps.

SPAIN ALMOST BANKRUPT.

A Cuban Points Out the Country's Bad Financial Condition.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Senor Quezada, secretary of the Cuban legation in an interview asserts that the revolutionists are gaining and the Spaniards retreating. The latter, he says, are becoming discouraged and adds that the paper currency policy adopted by General Weyler is causing even the classes which for selfish motives pretended to sympathize with Spain to complain. He asserted that Spain's finances were in a deplorable condition, saying:

"The Spanish official gazette contains a decree of the minister of the colonies ordering the sale of bonds of a total value of 2,300,000 francs. These are the last of the colonial bonds remaining at Spain's disposal. The bonds probably will bring, in round numbers, about 2,000,000 francs. On the same date that they are to be sold Spain has to pay 15,000,000 francs interest on the loans to which these bonds belong. Furthermore, on the 15th of April, May, June and July, respectively, there are due and Spain must take up the promissory notes which she issued last year on similar dates, amounting in the aggregate to 50,000,000 francs. On the 1st of July she also has to pay another 15,000,000 francs quarterly interest on colonial bonds. In round numbers, Spain within the next five months will be compelled to pay nearly 90,000,000 francs, and besides this she has to keep up her army, her navy and meet the expenses of the budget, which will undoubtedly require another 150,000,000 francs. Counting all her resources at her own figures, Spain will have a deficit of 150,000,000 francs, which will be added to a deficit already of 70,000,000 francs and her 457,000,000 francs of floating debt."

CRISIS NOT SO ACUTE.

Greece's Reply Gives a Chance For a Compromise.

THE KING IS POLITE, YET FIRM.

He Demands the Final Annexation of Crete, But Agrees to the Sultan's Rule Temporarily—Wants Greek Army to Remain Under Powers' Direction.

LONDON, March 9.—The reply of Greece to the identical notes of the powers is regarded in official circles here as being of a most favorable nature and it is believed that the crisis will now soon be ended, as the Greek note at least furnishes a basis upon which a compromise satisfactory to all concerned can be speedily reached.

ATHENS, March 9.—The reply demands the annexation of Crete to the kingdom on the broad grounds of historic rights and of a community of religion and race, but offers to withdraw the Greek fleet and recognize temporarily the sultan's suzerainty on condition that the powers entrust to the Greek army in the island the task of pacification.

The reply is conciliatory in tone fully recognizing the important objects the powers have in view and offering to withdraw her fleet from Crete waters. Greece, however, points to the fact that it is impossible for her to withdraw her troops from that island, in view of the danger of further massacre. On the other hand, Greece offers to place her troops in Crete under the control of the powers in order that they may be available for the restoration of order.

Referring to the statements made to the effect that the Cretans prefer autonomy to annexation with Greece, the government of Greece suggests that the Cretans be allowed to choose their own government.

Greece, the reply adds, is convinced that autonomy will not pacify Crete and that another chapter in the horrors of Mussulman fanaticism will be added to the six periods of anarchy which have already decimated the island. Continuing, the reply says it is impossible, in view of the past, to advise the Cretans to lay down their arms, holding that this advice would not be obeyed, even if tendered.

The Greek reply also says that since the foreign ships preserve order in Crete waters, and prevent the landing of Turkish troops, the presence of the Greek ships is unnecessary, but it is explained the Greek army cannot leave the Christians to the risk of Mussulman fanaticism and the Turkish troops.

The Greek government holds that order in Crete would be immediately restored if the powers would have confidence in the Greek troops and permit them to join in the work of pacifying the island.

He Shows Up Well in the Cleveland Bicycle Race.

CLEVELAND, March 9.—Louis Gimn, Albert Schoch, Frank Waller, George Dench, Ed. Gifford, Charles Ashinger and Harry Wood are in the six days' bicycle race at the Central armory here. The racers are to contest five and a half hours each day up to Saturday, beginning at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and riding until 10. On Saturday they will start at 2:30 and the finish of the race will be at 10:30 Saturday evening. The race will be divided into two wide enough to start all of them on the tape so three were sent away in front, with the remaining four following.

The race developed a decided surprise in Harry Wood, the Oberlin rider, a novice at six-days' racing. At the start Ashinger, through a remarkable series of accidents, lost over a mile. Gifford, Dench and Wood went out and gained a lap on Schoch, Gimn and Waller. Wood went right on for another, and this time Gimn stayed with him. This put Wood a lap ahead of Gimn, Gifford and Dench and two laps ahead of Waller and Schoch.

Later Gifford fouled Wood in a brush, giving him a terrible fall, for which Gifford was fined a lap. Wood pluckily remounted within the three-laps allowance and lost no distance. No more laps were gained by anyone and Wood won out at the finish. Gifford and Gimn being unable to pass him, though they tried hard. Dench was taken sick and was off the track for half an hour, leaving him a bad seventh. Following are the scores at the close:

Wood, 115 miles 1 lap; Gimn, 115 miles; Gifford, 114 miles 14 laps; Waller, 114 miles 14 laps; Schoch, 114 miles 14 laps; Ashinger, 113 miles 13 laps; Dench, 102 miles 7 laps.

SPAIN ALMOST BANKRUPT.

A Cuban Points Out the Country's Bad Financial Condition.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Senor Quezada, secretary of the Cuban legation in an interview asserts that the revolutionists are gaining and the Spanish retrogressing. The latter, he says, are becoming discouraged and adds that the paper currency policy adopted by General Weyler is causing even the classes which for selfish motives pretended to sympathize with Spain to complain. He asserted that Spain's finances were in a deplorable condition, saying:

"The Spanish official gazette contains a decree of the minister of the colonies ordering the sale of bonds of a total value of 2,000,000 francs. These are the last of the colonial bonds remaining at Spain's disposal. The bonds probably will bring, in round numbers, about 2,000,000 francs. On the same date that they are to be sold Spain has to pay 15,000,000 francs interest on the loans to which those bonds belong."

Furthermore, on the 15th of April, May, June and July, respectively, there are due and Spain must take up the promissory notes which she issued last year on similar dates, amounting in the aggregate to 50,000,000 francs. On the 1st of July she also has to pay another 15,000,000 francs quarterly interest on colonial bonds. In round numbers, Spain within the next five months will be compelled to pay nearly 90,000,000 francs, and besides this she has to keep up her army, her navy and meet the expenses of the budget, which will undoubtedly require another 50,000,000 francs. Counting all her resources at her own figures, Spain will have a deficit of 150,000,000 francs, which will be added to a deficit already of 70,000,000 francs and her 457,000,000 francs of floating debt."

WILL BE A GOOD TEAM

Baseball Players Organized Last Night.

SOME GAMES FOR THE SEASON

Have Already Been Booked, But the Manager Has Not Been Selected—Inter-State League Clubs Expected to Come During the Spring.

At the meeting of the baseball club, held last evening, 10 members were present, and Peck Hester was elected chairman and John Godwin secretary.

The team proceeded to organize for the season of '97, and Godwin, Hester and Kennedy were appointed to receive offers from the various parties who want to manage the team, as the players are desirous of receiving a share of the proceeds of any money that might be made in the venture.

The club has on its roster the fastest ball players in town, and several practice games will be played to select the team to represent the city. Games have been booked with Pittsburgh Athletic club and Holy Ghost for the latter part of June, and it is expected several of the Inter-state teams will play exhibition games here in the spring. All games will be played at Southside park, and the committee appointed will close negotiations with the owners of the park at once. Whoever is selected to manage the team will buy the uniforms. A meeting will be held next Monday night when all arrangements will be completed, and a selection of uniforms made. The players are now training in the Young Men's Christian association gymnasium.

East End will again enter the baseball field, and will have a stronger team than ever during the coming season.

The Junior Rovers is the name of an Association football team which has been organized and has for its manager Henry Green. They will play Wellsville April 14 and Salem April 27.

PROFESSIONAL COURTESY.

A Graceful Bit Occurred in Connection With the Wizard of the Nile.

A graceful bit of professional courtesy occurred recently regarding the production of Victor Herbert's opera, "The Wizard of the Nile," in Vienna this fall. The first instance on record of a comic opera by an American composer being translated into German for presentation in a foreign country had been watched by the musical world with great interest and considerable doubt. The temerity in choosing for that production the city which was the scene of the greatest triumphs of Johann Strauss, Von Suppe and Millocher was looked upon as more than daring. The fact that it has proven the prominent success of the operatic season there is pleasantly emphasized by a dispatch of congratulation from Johann Strauss, the "waltz king," to his American contemporary, Victor Herbert, acknowledging the hit made by his opera and prophesying that it is the first of what will undoubtedly be a long series of similar successes.

DEMOCRATS WILL MEET.

They Will Discuss the Advisability of a Ticket.

The Democratic central committee will meet this evening for the purpose of discussing the advisability of putting a ticket in the field at the coming election. The rank and file are of the opinion they may possibly elect a councilman if they work hard.

On the River.

The river is falling slowly, and contains about 18 feet at this point. A large number of boats passed up with large tows of empties. Bell McGown and John Moren are up today. Passed down—Rescue, four boats; George Shiras, six boats; two barges; Cruiser, six boats; two barges; Volunteer, four boats, one barge. The Keystone State reached this wharf during the morning, and brought an excellent trip.

BEAVER DAM, O., Aug. 27, 1895.

My daughter, after being treated by four doctors, and being given up for lost, a neighbor recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. Today she is able to walk several miles without fatigue. I feel we would have lost her if it was not for your medicine.

Rev. Anna Shaw will lecture in Association auditorium Monday evening, March 15. Tickets can be secured at the store of Mrs. McDonald, Market street, or at the Young Men's Christian association. There will be no reserved seats.

REPAIRED A MACHINE

And Charged Heavily For Doing the Work.

Yesterday two unknown men were admitted to the home of Charles Snediker, on Fifteenth street, and made it known to Mrs. Snediker that her husband had sent them to repair a sewing machine. Mr. Snediker had not sent them, and Mrs. Snediker did not know them, but let them proceed to repair the machine, for which they charged her $4. It is said. When they finished they requested their pay, but she refused, telling them to go and see her husband. They then asked for an order, but still she refused to settle, and they started uptown again to Mr. Snediker, and took him by surprise in requesting pay. They stood about sometime, and after a while again went to the residence, and after some talk and threats compelled Mrs. Snediker to pay them. After they left that part of town her husband followed with an officer, and overtaking them placed them under arrest. The parties gave up the money and were set free. It is understood the men were somewhat intoxicated, and Mr. Snediker had compassion on them and did not push the case.

WHIPPED A WOMAN.

Then Frank McLelland Was Arrested For His Brutality.

The West End of the city has been quiet of late, but yesterday the brick row furnished a lively sensation. From reliable reports it is learned that Frank McLelland knew Mrs. Bickerstaff quiet well, but lately Mrs. Bickerstaff had snubbed him. He told his friends that just as soon as he had money enough he was going to get even with her, and yesterday he had the required amount to pay his fine, and proceeded to carry out his threat. To say he slapped her would be putting it mildly. Mrs. Bickerstaff cried aloud, and ran to the back fence, next to the Cleveland and Pittsburgh yards, and told the workmen to call her husband. He came running to her assistance, but not in time, for McLelland had departed after, severely thrashing her and leaving her prostrated. This morning she was confined to her bed. Young McLelland was arrested.

The News of Wellsville.

Mrs. Ben Sherline returned from Steubenville yesterday evening.

Miss Belle McGilvery is sick with quinsy.

Rev. Dr. Reager returned from Cleveland, yesterday, where he spent the Sabbath.

Miss Della Watkins, of Sherrodsville, is paying a visit to her brother on lower Nevada street.

Miss Mabel Benedict returned today to Wellington, after a pleasant visit with Miss Sue Stevenson.

The way in which Reverend Stevenson handled the Asbury Brotherhood in yesterday's papers has created considerable sentiment in the city. From all indications the Brotherhood will be decreased in number at the next meeting.

To Consumptives.

DECIDE ON WEDNESDAY

Where the Christian Church Will Be Built.

STILL WANT BRADSHAW LAND

But the Amount Is High, and the Official Board Do Not Feel Like Paying the Price Asked—Another Site Is in Plain View.

The official board of the Christian church met at the residence of Mr. C. C. Thompson, last evening, and reported on several desirable sites for the proposed building. In speaking to several members of the board, this morning, it was learned that the site most wanted was the Bradshaw land, located at Broadway and Fifth streets. The new church will be built on this property if it can be secured at a moderate figure. As to the cost of the church, nothing could be learned, as no plans as yet have been drawn up. The cost depends largely on this.

When a member of the board was asked in reference to three well known men offering to purchase a site for the congregation he said: "I wish you would bring them around. This matter will be presented for a vote next Sabbath if all arrangements can be completed by that time." What the purchase price will be could not be learned, but it is understood, it is a very liberal one. The board will hold an extra session tomorrow evening after prayermeeting when final action will be taken.

Mother-love is mixed with daily, hourly sacrifice. The love increases with the sacrifice it entails. The more a mother suffers and endures for her little one, the more precious it becomes. She loves it because she has labored and suffered for it. The physical organs concerned in maternity affect a woman's entire constitution to a degree only half realized by many doctors.

Women are often treated specially for sick headaches, dyspepsia, melancholy, or what is supposed to be a liver or kidney affection or heart-disease, when in reality the whole trouble is with the reproductive organs. This delicate and intricate organism and the rational treatment for its peculiar ailments is a life study for the wisest physician. Probably no practitioner living has a higher reputation in this special direction, than Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. His "Favorite Prescription," is the most perfect remedy ever known for all "female complaints." It gets at the source of the trouble from the inside. It is not merely temporary, external, local, bolstering-up or palliative. It is a cure. It directly tones and strengthens the internal organs, restores them to health and regularity, and completely banishes the continual weakness, drag and drain which wear out body and mind. Its sale exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

In every American household there should be a copy of Dr. Pierce's great work, "Common Sense Medical Adviser," 1008 pages, illustrated. One copy free to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

P. J. GREEN, V. S., TALKS.

Makes a Public Statement for the Benefit of our Citizens.

Veterinary Surgeon Green requires no introduction to our readers, and on the other hand our readers can safely be trusted to draw their own deductions and arrive at their own conclusions. Read this. "Some time ago," says Mr. Green, "while attending a sick horse belonging to Mr. G. H. Gardner, of 162 Jackson street, he remarked to me that the horse seemed to be in pain. I replied that I was the sicker of the two, as I could at the time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of years from my kidneys, that I would have attacks at times when nothing would help me and it was agony for me to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and acidulous, that I had spells of dizziness, when I would see black specks floating before my eyes, and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said that he had the very thing I needed to cure me in the house—Doan's Kidney Pills. He went into the house and brought me out eight pills. I took them with me and used them two at a dose. The effect was astonishing to me. I felt it almost at once, and went to the W. and W. Pharmacy and bought a box and took them. The encouragement held out to me by the first eight pills was not mythical, as by their continued use the improvement continued, and I consider no expression of praise too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills; in short, they are Ne Plus Ultra. I am 68 years of age and have no hope of ever being permanently cured, as my trouble has become chronic, but this I do know, Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy for the kidney that has ever been placed before the people of this country. Trouble with the kidneys occurs and recurs periodically, and any remedy that will ward off an attack or tide the victim over it so easily as Doan's Kidney Pills does deserve the support of the public."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box, 6 boxes for $2.50. Mailed to any address on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

REPAIRED A MACHINE

And Charged Heavily For Doing the Work.

Yesterday two unknown men were admitted to the home of Charles Snediker, on Fifteenth street, and made it known to Mrs. Snediker that her husband had sent them to repair a sewing machine. Mr. Snediker had not sent them, and Mrs. Snediker did not know them, but let them proceed to repair the machine, for which they charged her $4. It is said. When they finished they requested their pay, but she refused, telling them to go and see her husband. They then asked for an order, but still she refused to settle, and they started uptown again to Mr. Snediker, and took him by surprise in requesting pay. They stood about sometime, and after a while again went to the residence, and after some talk and threats compelled Mrs. Snediker to pay them. After they left that part of town her husband followed with an officer, and overtaking them placed them under arrest. The parties gave up the money and were set free. It is understood the men were somewhat intoxicated, and Mr. Snediker had compassion on them and did not push the case.

WHIPPED A WOMAN.

Then Frank McLelland Was Arrested For His Brutality.

The West End of the city has been quiet of late, but yesterday the brick row furnished a lively sensation. From reliable reports it is learned that Frank McLelland knew Mrs. Bickerstaff quiet well, but lately Mrs. Bickerstaff had snubbed him. He told his friends that just as soon as he had money enough he was going to get even with her, and yesterday he had the required amount to pay his fine, and proceeded to carry out his threat. To say he slapped her would be putting it mildly. Mrs. Bickerstaff cried aloud, and ran to the back fence, next to the Cleveland and Pittsburg yards, and told the workmen to call her husband. He came running to her assistance, but not in time, for McLelland had departed after, severely thrashing her and leaving her prostrated. This morning she was confined to her bed. Young McLelland was arrested.

The News of Wellsville.

Mrs. Ben Sherline returned from Steubenville yesterday evening.

Miss Belle McGilvery is sick with quinsy.

Rev. Dr. Reager returned from Cleveland, yesterday, where he spent the Sabbath.

Miss Della Watkins, of Sherrodsville, is paying a visit to her brother on lower Nevada street.

Miss Mabel Benedict returned today to Wellington, after a pleasant visit with Miss Sue Stevenson.

The way in which Reverend Stevenson handled the Asbury Brotherhood in yesterday's papers has created considerable sentiment in the city. From all indications the Brotherhood will be decreased in number at the next meeting.

To Consumptives.

As an honest remedy Foley's Honey and Tar does not hold out false hopes in advanced stages, but truthfully claims to give comfort and relief in the very worst cases, and in the early stages to effect a cure.

DECIDE ON WEDNESDAY

Where the Christian Church Will Be Built.

STILL WANT BRADSHAW LAND

But the Amount Is High, and the Official Board Do Not Feel Like Paying the Price Asked—Another Site Is In Plain View.

The official board of the Christian church met at the residence of Mr. C. C. Thompson, last evening, and reported on several desirable sites for the proposed building. In speaking to several members of the board, this morning, it was learned that the site most wanted was the Bradshaw land, located at Broadway and Fifth streets. The new church will be built on this property if it can be secured at a moderate figure. As to the cost of the church, nothing could be learned, as no plans as yet have been drawn up. The cost depends largely on this.

When a member of the board was asked in reference to three well known men offering to purchase a site for the congregation he said: "I wish you would bring them around. This matter will be presented for a vote next Sabbath if all arrangements can be completed by that time." What the purchase price will be could not be learned, but it is understood, it is a very liberal one. The board will hold an extra session tomorrow evening after prayermeeting when final action will be taken.

Mother-love is mixed with daily, hourly sacrifice. The love increases with the sacrifice it entails. The more a mother suffers and endures for her little one, the more precious it becomes. She loves it because she has labored and suffered for it. The physical organs concerned in maternity affect a woman's entire constitution to a degree only half realized by many doctors. Women are often treated specially for sick headaches, dyspepsia, melancholy, or what is supposed to be a liver or kidney affection or heart-disease, when in reality the whole trouble is with the reproductive organs. This delicate and intricate organism and the rational treatment for its peculiar ailments is a life study for the wisest physician. Probably no practitioner living has a higher reputation in this special direction, than Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. His "Favorite Prescription," is the most perfect remedy ever known for all "female complaints." It gets at the source of the trouble from the inside: It is not merely temporary, external, local, bolstering-up or palliative. It is a cure. It directly tones and strengthens the internal organs, restores them to health and regularity, and completely banishes the continual weakness, drag and drain which wear out body and mind. Its sale exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

In every American household, there should be a copy of Dr. Pierce's great work, "Common Sense Medical Adviser," 1008 pages, illustrated. One copy free to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

P. J. GREEN, V. S., TALKS.

Makes a Public Statement for the Benefit of our Citizens.

Veterinary Surgeon Green requires no introduction to our readers, and on the other hand our readers can safely be trusted to draw their own deductions and arrive at their own conclusions. Read this. "Some time ago," says Mr. Green, "while attending a sick horse belonging to Mr. G. H. Gardner, of 163 Jackson street, he remarked to me that the horse seemed to be in pain. I replied that I was the sick of the two, as I could at the time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of years from my kidneys, that I would have attacks at times when nothing would help me and it was agony for me to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and acidulous, that I had spells of dizziness, when I would see black specks floating before my eyes, and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said that he had the very thing I needed to cure me in the house—Doan's Kidney Pills. He went into the house and brought me out eight pills. I took them with me and used them two at a dose. The effect was astonishing to me. I felt it almost at once, and went to the W. and W. Pharmacy and bought a box and took them. The encouragement held out to me by the first eight pills was not mythical, as by their continued use the improvement continued, and I consider no expression of praise too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills; in short, they are Ne Plus Ultra. I am 68 years of age and have no hope of ever being permanently cured, as my trouble has become chronic, but this I do know, Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy for the kidneys that has ever been placed before the people of this country. Trouble with the kidneys occurs and recurs periodically, and any remedy that will ward off an attack or tide the victim over it so easily as Doan's Kidney Pills does deserve the support of the public."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box, 6 boxes for $2.50. Mailed to any address on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.
